President Wilson Replies to Efforts of German Leaders to Make Peace By Piecemeal Conferences

[Republican A. P. Leased Wire]
WASHINGTON, Feb. 11.—President Wilson addressed congress today to clear the atmoshere of any confusion resulting from the recent speeches on peace terms by the German chancellor and the Austro-Hungarian foreign minister, and to reiterate that until the military masters of Germany are ready to consider peace on principles of fustice the United States will continue the fight it is just beginning for the safety or ifself and mankind.
In the speech of Count von Hertling,
the German chancellor, the president
found no approach to the path of peace,
but rather a proposal to end the war on German terms and to set up a league of nations to maintain the balance of power so established. Count Czernin, the Austrian spokesman, the president

the Austrian spokesman, the president said, employed a very friendly tone, seemed to see the fundamental elements of peace with clear eyes and probably would have gone much farther if it had not been for Austria's aillances and her dependence upon Germany

Germany.

U. S. Cannot be Turned Aside Membera of congress accepted the address not as a peace message, but as notice to the central powers that the United States cannot be turned aside from the object for which it is fighting and a warning to congress and the American people that the task of sending the nation's fighting men to the iront much not be interfered with by equivocal and misleading utterances of Teatonic statesmen. The president was warmly received and cheered as he concluded, and leaders, without respect to party, afterward expressed hearty approval of his words.

The address had been perpared after conferences during the past few days with Colonel E. M. House, who headed the American mission to the great inter-allied conference. As usual the long enough in advance to permit of arrangements for a joint session in the house chamber.

While in official and diplomatic quarters today there was a disposition to let the president's address speak for itself without interpretation, there apparently was no division of opinion on the point that his prime object was to bring the "extra-official negotiations" as some observers have termed the speech making of the chief statesmen of the nation at war, back to the fundamental issues, the settlement of each question on principles of justice: the cessation of the barter of provinces and peoples; the settlement of territorial question for the benefit of the populations concerned, and, finally, the recognition of national aspirations as a basis of permanent peace.

Von Hertling Drifts Far

VEEDER VAULT TO GIVE UP SECRETS FEDERAL OFFICERS

[Republican A. P. Leased Wire] CHICAGO, Feb. 11.-Judge Landis in United States district court, today denied a motion to quash the search warrant issued to agents of the federal trade commission last Tuesday authorizing the seizure of books and papers alleged to have been used in committing certain felonies from the vault of Henry Veeder, general coun-sel for Swift & Co. At the same time the court held the search and seizure section of the espionage law, under which the writ was issued, con-

Judge Landis, in his decision, overruled every objection advanced by counsel for the packers and upheld the government in its demand to search the Veeder vault for evidence. Counsel for Veeder were prepared for an unfavorable decision and by a series of formal motions perfected the record in the case so that ar immediate appeal could be taken to the United States court of appeals. Upon the application for a writ of error to the upper court, Judge Landis entered a temporary order staying further execution of the search war-mpt until 11 e'clock tomorrow

District Attorney Charles F. Clyne vigorously opposed the granting of the temporary stay order and declared the government would demand an immediate hearing on the appear. The moment Judge Landis had signed the temporary stay order counsel for Veeder went before Judge Francis E. Baker in the United States circuit court of appeals with a petition for a writ of error and a stay. Judge Baker received the petition and said he would consider it at 10 o'clok tomorrow morning. Meanwhile the Veeder vault is guarded by deputy United States marshals.

TUCSON, Feb. 11.—An authentic account of the killing of Sheriff McBride of Graham county and two of his deputies, which reached here from Safford tonight says that Sheriff McBride and Deputies Mark Kempton and T. Kane Wootan were killed Sunday morning about 6:30 o'clock in Battle with Tom Powers, John Powers, alleged draft evaders, and Tom Sisson at the home of the Powers boys in Rattlesnake canyon, Galluro mountains.

Deputy United States Marshal

Deputy United States Marshal Frank Haynes of Globe, Sheriff McBride and Deputies Kempton and Wootan left Safford Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock for the Galiuro mountains by way of Klondyke to get Tom Powers and John Powers, two alleged draft evaders. draft evaders.

They reached a house near the mine of John Powers, father of the Powers boys, about daybreak Sunday morning, surrounding the house. Old man Powers, the father, came out of the house with a gun and ordered the officers to hold up their hands, as one of his boys opened the door and started firing at the officers. Powers, Sr., dropped, shot through the right shoulder.

ONE A PAROLED CONVICT About 25 shots were fired by the officers. McBride was shot by Tom Powers and Kane Wootan was shot by John Powers. Kempton came around the house and kicked in the door and was shot by Tom Sisson, an ex-convict, sentenced to the penitentiary five years ago and paroled by Governor Hunt. He lived with

of the killing.

The murderers took the officers' horses and ammunition and started for the border to go into Mexico. They stopped at Hot Springs, one mile from the Powers camp, and told a man named Allen they had killed the officers and that their father was that and for him to go to the shot and for him to go to the Powers home and take care of him.

Posses left Safford, Thatcher, Pima, Fairview and Fort Thomas Sunday night, heavily armed, for the Galiuro mountains to get the draft evaders and Tom Sisson.

The bodies of the dead officers are expected to arrive in Safford tonight. A report today from Reddington, in the San Pedro Valley, states that the Powers boys and Sisson reached there Sunday night. Nothing further has been heard of them, but the posses are still in the field.

GLOBE, Feb. 11. — From a rancher living in the Graham mountain foothills word reached Globe early tonight that a posse of 150 cowmen and deputies from eight Arizona counties late this afternoon had surrounded Tom Sisson, paroled convict, and John and Tom Powers, brothers, who shot and killed Sheriff R. F. McBride and Deputies Martin Kempton and Kane Wootan of Graham county Sunday when these three officers, with Deputy United States Marshal Frank Haynes, went to arrest them on suspicion of being draft evaders. The three fugitives, who had barricaded their cabin in the foothills, escaped when Haynes left the scene of the murders to get help. They stripped the dead officers of their guns and made their getaway on the officers' horses. They appeared next at a small mountain town, Mammoth, and got grub. It was this information that led on the new posse.

"U" Boat Captain Takes Men Off American Ship on Board

[Republican A. P. Leased Wire]
AN ATLANTIC PORT, Feb. 11.
—Captain William Johnson and five other officers and twenty bluejackets who made up the gun crew of the American steamship Actaeon, torpedoed off the coast of Spain last Thanksgiving night, arrived here today. Thirty-five members of the crew were left in Spain, but will be returned to the United States as soon as a ship is available.

Captain Johnson said his ship was torpedoed without warning at seven o'clock. Within two minutes water reached the engine room and the lights went out. He immediately ordered the men into the four boats and they put off, separating for fear of being shelled by the submarine, which up to this time, no one had seen. Captain Johnson's boat reached Camarinas, Spain, two days later and within three days two other boats had landed. The boat commanded by Engineer John Murphy was twelve days at sea before it was picked up by a Spanish ship. The men suffered severely and four of them died.

Arthur B. Bordley of Baltimore, the third officer, commanded a boat in which were ten men. They pulled away from the sinking ship pulled away from the sinking ship and in a few minutes came up along the submarine which turned a searchlight full upon them. Bordley was ordered, in perfect English, to take six of his men on beard the underwater boat. He was taken below and closely questioned concerning the land and naval forces of the United States, while a half dozen seamen from the submarine made repeated trips to the sinking Actaeon and carried away all nautical instruments and such stores as they wanted. as they wanted.

The submarine captain, Bordley declared, served him with wine and cigarettes while questioning him, and when he refused all information threatened to keep him a prisoner on the submarine. When Bordley persisted in his refusal the captain dismissed him and his boat was pushed off.

The Actaeon was formerly the German ship Adamsturm, and was interned in the harbor of Colon at th beginning of the war.
